MCC Ward 32 By-Election

Poll scene hots up as candidates begin door-to-door campaign

Mysuru, June 20 (RK&BCT)- The stage is set for the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) by-election for Ward 32 that will be held on July 2. With less than a fortnight remaining for the polling day, the JD(S) and the BJP have already finalised their candidates while the Congress is still in search of a suitable candidate.

The Ward 32 covers Gokulam 2nd Stage, Vontikoppal, Adi Pampa Road, Kalidasa Road, Valmiki Road and parts of VV Mohalla.

SBM Manju of JD(S) and K. Madesh of BJP have already started their door-to-door campaigns and are mobilising the youth to ensure the victory of their respective parties. Latest information from Bengaluru this morning says that the Congress has finalised the name of former Mayor B.K. Prakash as its candidate.

The by-election has been necessitated following the conviction of C. Mahadesh alias Avva Madesha who was Ward 32 JD(S) Corporator in a murder case. Following the conviction, his membership in the Civic Body was cancelled. Whoever is elected as a new Corporator from the Ward will have a one-year-three-month term.

Mahadesh had a strong hold on Ward as he had won it twice from the JD(S) ticket. As such, JD(S) has taken it as a prestige issue. Desperate to retain the seat, the JD(S) has fielded party town spokesperson SBM Manju as its candidate. The BJP has finalised the name of K. Madesh.

(See POLL on page 8)

SBM Manju and Madesh
to file nominations tomorrow

"I hail from Vontikoppal and have had an active social life. I have served in financial sectors for several years and I am confident that voters of Ward 32 will support me. I have the blessings of party State President H.D. Kumaraswamy. I will file my nominations tomorrow (June 21) at 11 am."

— SBM Manju, JD(S) candidate

"It's my Ward and I have been involved in many social activities including pro-Kannada issues. I am amidst people 24/7 and have addressed several of their problems. I will get B Form from BJP today at 3 pm and will file the nominations tomorrow (June 21) at 11 am."

— K. Madesh, BJP candidate

Exit for the elderly

Thanks to the steadily rising mark of life expectancy for both male and female sections of the land's population, not only the percentage of the elderly in the total mass but also their headcount have been increasing currently, going by officially published data and information on India's demography. As if to substantiate that scenario portraying senior citizens, numerically in particular, they can be seen outnumbering the less-than-sixty class in urban spaces at various spots such as music concerts, seminar halls of institutions organising talks on both topical and academic subjects as in Mysuru, counters of civic bodies to remit taxes on property or paying water and electricity bills as well as neighbourhood shops selling daily needs, not to forget early morning walkers in parks. One doesn't have to ponder too much to know where the young in society are to be found — malls, cinema complexes, pubs, joints offering exotic dishes, evening functions in colleges of girls and, of course, rallies and road shows which are common sight in all cities.

In the era that has clearly emerged, roads are getting wide and living spaces shrinking with the obvious consequence of houses hosting nuclear families, showing the exit door to the grandpas and grandmas at the evening hours in their life, unfazed by the fact that the grandsons and grand-daughters of today shall get their turn for exit on a later day.

The street-smart grandpas, accounting for a small number in the land with adequate provisions for living without depending on the grace of the their own ungrateful progeny, are the best role models for those who are driven to the corner as it were, to languish in despair. Homes for the aged and destitute, created both for profit and selfless caring by either individuals or trusts may address the predicament of the elderly to some extent, but that doesn't absolve the gen-next of their moral responsibility and bounden duty to care for their seniors in the respective families.

The elderly of Mysuru could be heard cursing their lot murmuring the line "The town is showing the exit door and the woods are beckoning" (Ooru hogu antha ide, kaadu baa antha ide, in Kannada). The headcount of the elderly is estimated to account for one-fifth of the total population in the course of the next three decades. They are forewarned that they are unwelcome in the same homes that were theirs until the other day. A survey conducted by HelpAge India recently has revealed that Bengaluru is least hospitable in the country to the elderly. Mysuru may be seeking the cleanest-city-tag, but its citizens can earn greater glory by seeking the most-elderly-friendly-city tag in the land.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The other day I saw two men talking to each other, one was obviously the head of the household and the other the domestic help. The master of the house, a man of mature years, was wearing a neatly ironed shirt and trousers, while the domestic help, a young chap, was dressed in raggedy shorts and a grungy T-shirt which looked as though it hadn't seen the inside of a washing machine ever since those household appliances got invented. As it turned out, I was totally wrong. The well-dressed gent was the domestic help, and the fellow who looked as though he'd bought his clothes at a sale organised by the National Association of Raddiwalas was the boss. What I was witnessing was the trend known as dressing down. Earlier, men would dress up – in suits and ties, or Nehru jackets, or silk achkans – in order to proclaim to the world that they were Big Shots. Today, instead of dressing up to prove to all and sundry – beginning with themselves – that they're Big Shots, men dress down to prove to all and sundry – beginning with themselves – that they're Big Shots. Women always dress up for the sake of other women, in a tacit competition to see which one of them can flaunt the more extensive and extravagant wardrobe. While today's Chhotus try to dress the way their maliks used to, today's maliks dress the way their Chottus used to, often appearing in public in shorts and sleeveless ganjees and rubber flip-flops. After shorts and vests, what next in dressing down? Chuddees? Loincloths? And the ultimate: all loin, and no cloth?

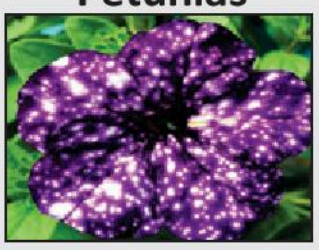
The Blue forest of Belgium

Brussels: Hallerbos is a beautiful but unremarkable forest in central Belgium, near Brussels, gets its intriguing name from the vibrant carpet of bluebells that replaces the usual brown floor of the forest. Imagine millions of flowers covering the ground as far as the eye can see and you can get a pretty good idea of what this place is like in full-bloom. Bluebell forests are not unusual in Europe, but what makes Hallerbos unique is the density of the flowers that make its floor look like a living carpet.

As a rule of thumb, the best time to visit the Blue Forest is mid-April, but the precise time of flowering is heavily influenced by weather. For example, if late March is unusually warm, then the bluebells could be appearing in early April. The official Hallerbos Forest website posts frequent updates on the blooming of the bluebells, especially as the flowering stage approaches. Keeping an eye on these is probably the best way to visit this beautiful place at just the right time.

Night Sky Petunias



Berlin: The internet is going crazy over these incredibly beautiful purple flowers that seem covered in bright white stars. They are called 'Nigh Sky Petunias,' or 'Galaxy Flowers' and they are indeed stunning. Petunias, in general, are not the most exciting flowers to look at, but German breeder Selecta One managed to change that a few years ago, when it created NightSky, a special type of petunia that actually resembles a trumpet-shaped galaxy full of bright stars of all shapes and sizes. It has won numerous awards in plant and gardening competitions, and for good reason. According to Selecta One, temperature is the most important factor to consider when growing Night Sky petunias. Warm days and warm nights make the flowers predominantly purple, or, in extreme cases, completely purple, while cooler days and nights bring out the whiteness in the petals. So, in order to strike a balance between the two, warm days and cool nights are the perfect combination. However, some growers claim that the PH of the soil also influences the patterns on the flowers.

Convert Mysore Vasudevacharya's house into a Memorial

Sir,

I fully endorse the thoughtful suggestion of Yadupathi Putty in his letter titled "Preserve Sangeetha Kalanidhi Mysore Vasudevacharya's house" (SOM dated May 17) with regard to making it into a suitable monument.

My Guruji (late) Mysore B. K. Padmanabha Rao was one of the senior-most disciples of the Acharya and I had the privilege of seeing Acharya in close quarters several times. Between 1947 and 1951, when I used to pass by his house on my way to my music class every evening, I would never miss him sitting on the swing in the drawing room overlooking the road and singing in his bass voice with gay abandon.

On many an occasion, he would drop by at my Guruji's place on Sayyaji Rao Road, sit through our class which will be in progress and bless us. I would be thrilled and awestruck at his gesture on such memorable occasions.

Mysore K. Vasudevacharya belonged to the Sishya-Parampara of Saint Thyagaraja and held a unique place among the post-Trinity Composers and commanded great respect and reverence as a veteran in Karnatak music world. His enormous contribution through his wonderful compositions enriched Karnatak music. Most of his compositions were popular and no musician's repertoire would be complete without a few of his compositions being rendered on the concert platform. Vasudevacharya also groomed many well-known Vidwans of yesteryears.

It is a pity, therefore, that the house which was gifted by the then Maharaja and where such an eminent personality lived for about 85 years and contributed so much to our music, should be in ruins.

Let us hope that the wishes of all musicians, music-lovers and others would be fulfilled by the Government, coming forward and converting this place into a Heritage Monument.

Mysuru, June 20 (YDS&NNN)- The KR Police have decided to clamp down on alleged illegal activities going on in the Chamundi Hill, especially during night times. Even the Deputy Commissioner had approved the proposal to install the gates and CC TV cameras. As a step in this direction, the Police have started the work of installing the gates at all the four entrances to the Hill, to ban free entry of vehicles.

There have been lot of complaints from residents of the Hill and general public about the illegal activities and the revelry the youngsters indulge in at night.

Huge gates: Huge gates are being installed at the entrance to the Hill near Tavarekatte, Daivi Vana, Helipad Road and Uttanahalli Road. The work began last week and will be completed by the end of this month. The CC TV cameras will also be installed at each gate.

Timings for gate closure: The gates of the temple atop Chamundi Hill closes at 9 pm and by 9.30 pm, except the residents of the Hill, the public will be asked to leave the premises and all the gates at the entrance will be closed at 10 pm.

The entry after 10 pm will be completely banned for public. Who are allowed: A survey will be undertaken to find out how many people live atop the Hill and each one of them will be issued identity card. Those who possess ID card will be allowed entry even after 10 pm.

Muzrai temple funds: The gates are being installed with the funds from Muzrai Department and Chamundi Development grants, said KR Police Inspector Prakash, to Star of Mysore.

Three Sub-Registrar offices in city to get own buildings soon

By Rajkumar Bhavasar

Mysuru, June 20- Three Sub-Registrar offices in the city will soon have own buildings as the State Government has finally released CA sites for the buildings to be constructed. Mysuru South Senior Sub-Registrar office, East and West Sub-Registrar's offices will function from new premises and the sites have been granted by the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA).

It may be recalled here that a report was published in Star of Mysore dated July 24, 2016 under the title "Four Sub-Registrar offices in city do not have 'own' buildings — Rs. 2.27 lakh spent on rented buildings per month." One more report "3 Sub-Registrar offices to have own buildings — State Govt. responds to Star of Mysore report; sanctions CA Sites" was published on October 20, 2016 as the Government sanctioned the land.

The reports had highlighted how four out of six offices of the Sub-Registrars involved in registration of properties and marriages, together generating a revenue of more than Rs. 238 crore per year, are functioning from rented premises paying a whopping Rs. 2,27,300 as monthly rent. There are 15 offices of the Sub-Registrars in the district out of which six are located in Mysuru city alone.

Now the CA sites have been handed over to the Sub-Registrar offices as per the Government terms and conditions and have been given on a 30-year contract.

At present, the office of South Senior Sub-Registrar is located near Ramakrishnanagar Circle, Mysuru (West) Sub-Registrar's office is located near water tank at Vijayanagar 2nd Stage and Mysuru (East) Sub-Registrar's office is beside RTO's office on Dr. Rajkumar Road at Kalyanagiri.

Once the new buildings are constructed, South Senior Sub-Registrar's office will function from CA-5A plot at Vijayanagar Fourth Stage, First Block. Mysuru West Sub-Registrar's office will function from Vijayanagar Third Stage (in a CA plot between Malakanadu Samudaya Bhavan and Aishwarya Petrol Pump) and the office of Mysuru (East) Sub-Registrar will function from CA-03 site near the Karnataka State Group D Employees Housing Cooperative Society Layout at Sathagalli.

Sources said that the land documents have been handed over to the Sub-Registrar offices as per the rules and regulations of Urban Development Authorities (civic amenities and site distribution) and a concession of 50 percent has been provided.

Rs. 1,01,000 rent has been fixed per month for South Senior Sub-Registrar's office, Rs. 20,000 for West Sub-Registrar's office and Rs. 33,000 rent per month has been fixed for East Sub-Registrar's office. Very soon, the State Government will be approached to sanction funds for building, sources said.

Manual scavenging: Police grill PDO

GP President on the run

Anand

Mysuru, June 20 (SBD&BCT)- Police are questioning Chamundi Hill Gram Panchayat Development Officer (PDO) Anand, who is accused of forcing a civic worker to get into a manhole to clean it. Sources said that Anand was brought by the K.R. Police from Bengaluru on Sunday (June 18).

On June 7, President of Chamundi Hill Gram Panchayat Geetha and PDO Anand allegedly forced a civic worker to climb down a manhole that was full with sewage instead of using machines to clean it. They asked Pourakarmika Ganesh to get inside the overflowing manhole in front of Geetha's house at Thavarekere village.

Photos and videos of Ganesh getting into the manhole were circulated widely in the media. After the incident, the State Government suspended Anand and issued a show-cause notice to Geetha. Anand was reportedly undergoing a treatment at a hospital as he had met with an accident three days before the incident.

A case under Sections 8 and 9 of The Prohibition of Employment as Manual Scavengers and their Rehabilitation Act 2013 was registered against the GP President and PDO, and a case was registered against them under column 43 (a) and 48 under Karnataka Gram Swaraj and Panchayat Raj Act, 1993.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, however, K.R. Assistant Commissioner of Police Dharmappa, who is also the Investigating Officer, said that they were interrogating Anand and this cannot be termed as an arrest.

"After cases were booked, we had served a notice on the PDO asking him to be present at the Police Station. He was present for questioning yesterday and he has been asked to be present on June 20 (today) too. If the case attracts punishment below seven years, the accused is served a notice. As per Supreme Court guidelines, arrest is usually made if the accused does not cooperate with the Police," he said.

Meanwhile, GP President Geetha is on the run. The show-cause notice issued to her by the State Government — following Zilla Panchayat Chief Executive Officer P. Shivashankar writing to the State recommending action against her — was pasted on the wall of her house.

The notice was issued on June 16 and Geetha is supposed to reply to it within a week following which the Government will decide on her Presidentship and Panchayat Membership.

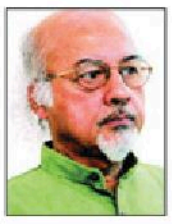
Congress planning to lose its hold on Karnataka, too? With boldness (not National Herald) it can win



Point of VIEW

T.J.S. George

The Congress can electrify the scene in its favour if it projects Mallikarjun Kharge as its Chief Ministerial candidate in the next election. He is the only leader in Karnataka with a clean image and his administrative experience is unrivalled. He is also the only Congressman tall enough to keep in check the criminal elements that occupy important positions in the party leadership today.

Even in its glory days, the National Herald never had a South Indian presence. It was always a Delhi-Lucknow entity and knew it. It would have been another inconsequential provincial rag but for its ownership (Jawaharlal Nehru) and its editorship (Chalapathi Rau). Actually, the latter more than the former. While Nehru was an absentee overlord, it was Chalapathi's superior qualities as editor, writer and activist that made the paper a stand-out.

The Delhi-North Indian stamp of the Herald is an unalterable historical reality. Yet, when they decided to launch a commemorative edition of the paper, they chose Bangalore as the launching pad. Strange. Why didn't they pick Delhi where the multistorey Herald House rises proudly in the city's newspaper street, Bahadurshah Zafar Marg? Why not Lucknow, the paper's birthplace and headquarters? Why did they choose a location never associated with the Herald in any way?

The reason of course is that the Congress was playing practical politics. Today's Delhi is unfriendly territory for a Nehru-linked institution. Lucknow would be even more unfriendly with a saffron-clad yogi reigning as the monarch of all he surveys there. Karnataka is a major State where the Congress is unchallenged in power. To hold a launch function there would not only be safe; it would ensure the attendance of government leaders and thus the attention of the entire State administration. That was what happened. The National Herald and Rahul Gandhi were praised skyhigh with the entire State Cabinet turning out and the Police closing major highways to make it an easy ride for the Congress.

In all fairness, it must be acknowledged that Rahul Gandhi, the star of the show, made a good impression with his speech. Someone had obviously provided timely input, for the Congress scion said that "the power of truth is being completely replaced by the truth of power." He even quoted Yevgeny Yevtushenko, the legendary Soviet era poet, to remind us that "when truth is replaced by silence, the silence is a lie." Very true. But when the British tried to replace truth with silence, another Gandhi responded with action that found a million tongues.

What does the present Gandhi do? He quoted Yevtushenko, then flew to Delhi and then went off to Italy to spend time, we were told, with his 93-year old grandmother. A sycophant added insult to injury by saying that "attending to aged grandparents is part of Indian culture." Rahul Gandhi is known for his regular disappearances from India. But this was a critical moment, with strategies being worked out for the Presidential election, a gathering of opposition leaders taking place and the farmers' agitation in the Hindi heartland growing worse by the day. Rahul chose to ignore all that and become part of Indian culture instead.

That the Congress is in the hands of a part-time leader is the biggest asset of the BJP. Unable to come up with initiatives that enthuse the people, the Congress goes after ideas that confuse them — like the National Herald commemoration in Bengaluru. What was its purpose? Certainly not to revive the paper which is an impossibility. Was it then a move to give a boost to the Congress in Karnataka in preparation for the election next year?

That is going to be a life-and-death election for the Congress. But a gimmick built round a newspaper, that is unknown in Karnataka, is no way to prepare for so crucial an election. A bold Congress can still fight and win. The key word is bold. It must be bold enough to realise that the incumbency factor alone will lead to its collapse if the present leadership structure continues. A new face and a new promise, on the other hand, can certainly give it a fighting chance.

The Congress can electrify the scene in its favour if it projects Mallikarjun Kharge as its Chief Ministerial candidate in the next election. He is the only leader in Karnataka with a clean image and his administrative experience is unrivalled. He is also the only Congressman tall enough to keep in check the criminal elements that occupy important positions in the party leadership today. Indeed, Kharge appears to be the only option open to the Congress to keep at least one State under its flag in the South.

The question is less whether Kharge can be persuaded to take up the task and more whether the Congress leadership has the ability to understand its plight. The alternative is to go the National Herald way.

HC asks State Govt. not to appoint teachers to non-teaching posts

Prof. Rajanna's petition against his transfer dismissed

Mysuru, June 20 (NNN)- The Karnataka High Court Justice Vineet Kothari yesterday ruled that teachers should show their talent in teaching and leave clerical jobs to non-teaching staff. The HC also directed the State Government not to appoint teachers to non-teaching jobs.

Justice Kothari gave the order while dismissing the petition filed by Prof R. Rajanna, former Registrar, University of Mysore, against his transfer. Prof Rajanna had contended that he had been moved out without any notice being issued to him. He is a professor of History and now moved back to his department. Senior KAS officer D. Bharati was appointed in his place.

The judge suggested that in future, only experts in administration should be appointed as Registrars. If such a step is taken then internal squabbles and confusions could be avoided. The State Government should look into this issue, he said.

When Star of Mysore spoke to Prof Rajanna, he said, "I have still not received the copy of the order dismissing my petition. Only after I receive it, can I take a decision."

Government is right

A Syndicate member speaking to SOM said that the State had taken the right step in appointing a senior KAS officer as the Registrar and this stand was vindicated by the decision of the High Court.

The Karnataka State Universities (Amendment) Act, 2011, (that received the assent of the Governor on Feb. 4, 2011) says — Amendment of section 17 - In Section 17 of the principal Act for sub-section (1), the following shall be and shall always be deemed to have been substituted, namely:- "(1) The Registrar shall be a whole time officer of the University. The State Government may appoint an officer not below the rank of Group-A officer of the super time scale or a member of the faculty of any university working as a Professor for at least five years to be a Registrar of a University."

At loggerheads?

The Higher Education Department has made it mandatory for Vice-Chancellors and Registrars of to teach for specified hours in a month. But the order from the High Court to the Government asking it to not to appoint teachers to non-teaching jobs is contrary to what the State Government has set out to implement. A notification, issued recently has stipulated that a Vice Chancellor has to teach at least for eight hours in a month, while Registrar (Administration) and Registrar (Evaluation) must teach at least 16 hours in a month. However, there was no such rule earlier.

"The Government appoints a bureaucrat in place of an academician, thus violating it's own notification. Though it is right, to appoint a bureaucrat to University of Mysore, following the Karnataka State Universities (Amendment) Act, 2011, how can it violate its own notification," asked a senior professor.

Such anomalies is creating lot of confusion in the minds of the academicians. The State Government as well as the Higher Education Department should put its heads together and come out with proper rules and regulations that should uphold the dignity of the universities, instead of acting in this ham handed fashion said a former Vice Chancellor.

The Congress, which had lost the ward election twice is yet to come up with a name to give a tough fight. According to City Congress President R. Murthy, names have been finalised and have been sent to Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) President Dr. G. Parameshwara to decide.

The names have been finalised along with Chamaraja MLA Vasu and the list includes Himamshu, Syndicate Member of Dr. Gangubai Hangal University of Music and Performing Arts and senior party workers Nagaraj, Nagesh and former Mayor B.K. Prakash.

While City BJP President Dr. B.H. Manjunath is confident that their candidate K. Madesh will win the election easily, K. Harish Gowda, JD(S) City President is sure of voters backing SBM Manju as the ward was administered by JD(S) for two terms. "We have fielded SBM Manju as he is a popular figure in the ward and the party has a strong presence. Moreover, we have taken the election as a prestige issue and will leave no stone unturned to ensure victory," he said.

SBM Manju was a strong contender for Ward 32 in the 2013 election itself and as C. Mahadesha was already a Corporator before the 2013 election, JD(S) decided to retain Mahadesha and gave the ticket to Manju to contest from Gokulam Ward 31. Manju, however, lost the election to BJP's Girish Prasad by a narrow margin of 206 votes.

Sources said that Manju has good equation with JD(S) supremo and former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda and party State President H.D. Kumaraswamy. This is the reason why Manju was chosen as the party's official candidate despite C. Mahadesh's wife Bhagya being a strong aspirant.

BJP's K. Madesh joined the party three years back and has been doing a lot of social service. He is involved in many Kannada-related activities. He had fought election from the same ward in 2007 but had lost. He has bagged the ticket despite stiff competition from Premkumar and Mahadev from the same ward.

'Rs. 1,000 crore worth works pending in MP-LAD funds'

Including Local Area Development grants from MLAs and MLCs

Mysuru, June 20 (MTY&VNS)- MPs', MLAs' and MLCs' Local Area Development (LAD) Funds of nearly Rs. 1,000 crore worth works are still pending in the State, said Renuka Chidambaram, Principal Secretary Planning Programme Monitoring & Statistics Department, Government of Karnataka, here this morning.

Addressing a review meeting with officials at DC's office, she said compared to other districts, Mysuru had done fairly well in utilising the funds.

Most of the works in the State have been pending over the past few years citing various reasons such as change in implementing authority and technical reasons, she said.

Stating that there was lack of accountability, Renuka said at the time when H. Vishwanath was the MP he had given approval for works worth Rs. One crore but even after four years the works have not been completed and added that works worth Rs. 3.58 crore approved by MP Pratap Simha were also pending.

Renuka called on the officials to coordinate with elected representatives to avoid confusion, to update on the progress of works and also to get information on change of implementing agency.

She also mentioned that not more than 25 percent of the total funds should be kept pending and added that nearly 163 works till date from 2013 were pending in Mysuru.

She said that officials must prepare the estimates for at least 100 pending works out of the 163 works in the next two months. She added that Chief Minister Siddharamaiah was taking personal interest in reviewing the works taken up under such funds.

She also took the officials of Nirmithi Kendra to task for keeping a few works pending from the past three years.

DC D. Randeep, Planning Programme Monitoring & Statistics Department Joint Secretary Padmaraj, Assistant Commissioner Shivegowda, MCC Commissioner G. Jagadeesha, Tahsildar Naragund and other officials were present.

He, however, did not spell out the name of the party which he will be joining after he moves out of Congress.

Addressing the gathering, Vishwanath said it was painful to leave Congress after a long 43-year association.

"The party that was built by stalwarts like Jawaharlal Nehru and Indira Gandhi is in Siddharamaiah's clutches.

Rally marks Natl. Malaria Prevention Month in city

Mysuru, June 20 (RKB&KS)- As part of National Malaria Prevention Month with the theme 'End Malaria for Good,' the District Vector-borne Diseases Control Officer had organised an awareness rally in Bannimantap here this morning.

The rally was flagged off by Corporator R. Nagaraj from the Primary Health Centre (PHC) at Hanumanthanagar in the presence of District Vector-borne Diseases Control Officer Dr. Chidambara.

About 100 persons, including nursing students, PHC staff and members of the public, carrying placards with information on prevention of Malaria and measures to be taken to control mosquitoes, took part in the rally that passed through the main thoroughfares of Bannimantap, Hanumanthanagar and Aleemnagar, where they distributed pamphlets among the public before culminating at the starting point.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Chidambara said that till May 2017, 1,88,861 blood samples were collected in the district and added that all the samples tested negative for Malaria.

He further said that 159 dengue and 11 Chikungunya cases were recorded till June 14, 2017 and added that no deaths have occurred due to this. Health Inspectors Madhushankar, Bhadregowda and Venugopal, Dr. Lokesh of Bannimantap PHC and others were present.

Overflowing garbage bin greets rallyists

The rallyists, who assembled at Bannimantap PHC this morning, were greeted with an overflowing garbage bin, which is one of the places for disease-causing mosquitoes to breed. The MCC authorities, who give instructions to public to keep the surroundings clean, seems to have themselves failed in getting the overflowing garbage bin cleared at least today when they took out an awareness rally, said members of public who added that the Corporator, who flagged off the rally, could have taken an initiative to get the bin cleared.

He said that the new Centre would be a boon for the poor and economically weaker sections as we can begin treatment immediately after getting the detailed report without making the patients to wait for days.

Dr. Pashupathi said that a 24x7 laboratory facility with three technicians, staff nurse and three doctors would be made available in the exclusive 50-bed Centre. At present, the blood test for Dengue was being tested only at the lab in the District Health and Family Welfare Department premises in Nazarbad, he said and added that with different types of fevers being reported in city, the new Fever Centre would be of much help.

Yogi of Yogis Sri Paramahansa Yogananda who had visited our city

Paramahansa Yogananda was an Indian yogi and guru who introduced millions of people including westerners to the teachings of meditation and Kriya Yoga through his book, Autobiography of a Yogi. On the occasion of International Yoga Day tomorrow, we hereby publish an article written by K.G. Manjunath on the contributions of Paramahansa to the world of Yoga.

Yogoda Satsanga Society of India (YSS) was established by Gurudeva and founder Sri Paramahansa Yogananda in 1917. Commemorating 100 years of YSS, Prime Minister Narendra Modi released a commemorative stamp on March 7, 2017.

We have no doubt that Paramahansa Yogananda would be pleased that the world is now paying homage annually to India's ancient science of God-realisation by celebrating the International Day of Yoga, as his life was dedicated to introducing all truth-seekers to the time-honoured techniques of Yoga meditation.

"Man remains engaged in an unceasing quest for that 'something else' and he hopes it will bring him complete and unending happiness. For those individual souls who have sought and found God, the search is over: He is that something else." This gem of wisdom was perhaps the essence of Paramahansa Yogananda's teaching of Raja Yoga/ Kriya Yoga — the scientific path for attaining all-fulfilling personal communion with God.

Paramahansa was born in Gorakhpur, Uttar Pradesh, on January 5, 1893. After graduating from Calcutta University in 1915, he was initiated into sanyas. His guru, Swami Sri Yukteswarji encouraged him to take up organisational work, reminding him that he who renounces worldly duties must love and serve, as his own, the larger family of humanity. Thus, Yogoda Satsanga Society of India was founded in 1917, with an Ashram and a small school in Ranchi, Jharkhand.

Yogananda spent over thirty years in America, spreading the ancient science of Kriya Yoga as taught and practiced by Lord Sri Krishna, Pathanjali and other illumined sages of India over the centuries. He advocated the brotherhood of man under the fatherhood of God. A century after the birth of Paramahansa Yogananda, he has come to be recognised as one of the pre-eminent spiritual figures of our time. The influence of his life and work continues to grow. Many of the religious and philosophical concepts and methods he introduced decades ago through his prolific writings are now finding expression in science, education, psychology, medicine, business and other spheres of endeavour— contributing in far-reaching ways to a more integrated, humane and spiritual vision of human life.

His magnum opus, 'Autobiography of a Yogi' is acclaimed as a spiritual classic and masterpiece, read all over the world by people of all creeds and paths. Those who read the book claim they are transformed and their spiritual understanding of life greatly clarified. Selected as one of the 100 best spiritual books of the last 100 years in 2000, it was published in 1946 and expanded in subsequent editions.

Written for a modern audience and translated into 45 worldwide languages including 13 Indian languages, it is widely regarded today as a spiritual masterpiece, one of the most important, relevant and readable works on Yoga and ancient Indian philosophy.

In one of the chapters on Cosmic Consciousness, Yogananda says: "After the mind has been cleared by Kriya Yoga of sensory obstacles, meditation furnishes a twofold proof of God. Ever-new joy is evidence of His existence, convincing to our very atoms. Also in meditation, one finds His instant guidance, His adequate response to every difficulty."

During November 1935, H.H. the Yuvaraja, Sir Kanteerava Narasimharaja Wadiyar, had invited Yogananda to visit his enlightened and progressive realm. For over two weeks, Yogananda addressed thousands of Mysore citizens and students, at the Town Hall, the Maharaja's College, the University Medical School and held three mass meetings in Bangalore, at the National High School, the Intermediate College, and the Sir Puttanna Chetty Town Hall where over 3,000 persons had assembled.

Yogoda Satsanga Society of India has over 200 meditation centres all over India in addition to more than 500 centres around the world organised under Self Realisation Fellowship. In addition, there are four ashrams, in Ranchi, Kolkata, Noida, and Dwarahat (near Ranikhet).

YSS publishes the writings and lectures of Paramahansa and his senior disciples. In recognition of his outstanding contribution to the world, our nation and the world has paid befitting tribute to Paramahansa Yogananda. Swami Sivananda of Divine Life Society said: "A rare gem of inestimable value, the like of whom the world is yet to witness, Paramahansa Yogananda has been an ideal representative of the ancient sages and seers, the glory of India"

During November 1935, H.H. the Yuvaraja, Sir Kanteerava Narasimharaja Wadiyar, had invited Yogananda to visit his enlightened and progressive realm. For over two weeks Yogananda addressed thousands of Mysore citizens and students, at the Town Hall, the Maharaja's College, the University Medical School and held three mass meetings in Bangalore, at the National High School, the Intermediate College, and the Sir Puttanna Chetty Town Hall where over 3,000 persons had assembled.

The Shankaracharya of Kanchipuram said: "I met Paramahansa Yogananda in Calcutta in 1935. I have been following the accounts of his activities in America ever since. As a bright light shining in the midst of darkness, so was Yogananda's presence in this world. Such a great soul comes on earth only rarely, when there is a real need among men."

On the 25th anniversary of Paramahansa Yogananda's passing, the Government of India issued a commemorative stamp in his honour in the year 1977. The Train from Howrah - Hatia has been named as "Kriya Yoga Express" in honour of Paramahansa Yogananda.

Bengaluru has commemorated the life and contributions of Paramahansa Yogananda and his spiritual organisation by naming a major road in Domlur II Stage. The naming of Domlur 1st Main Road and ESI Road to "Paramahansa Yogananda Road" was organised on December 30, 2015 by the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) in the presence of Ministers, dignitaries from the city administration including the Mayor and eminent leaders of Bengaluru.

In Mysuru, Yogoda Satsanga Dhyana Kendra (YSDK) situated in Saraswathipuram, had organised the International Day of Yoga on June 17 and 18. It will also be held on June 21. The highlights of the celebrations are Open House, Exhibition of the Books, Publications, CDs and DVDs, Slide Shows and Film Shows on Paramahansa Yogananda's life and teachings. The events are free and open to all.

BRICS Games 2017

India go down to China in basketball

Guangzhou, June 20- China beat India 97-57 on the opening day of the BRICS Games 2017, despite a strong performance from star player Amjyot Singh Gill at Guangzhou, China, on the opening day of the BRICS Games 2017 yesterday.

The game was fairly competitive in the first half. It was a one point game late in the second quarter, before a 9-0 run allowed the Chinese to take a 38-28 lead into half time. The hosts carried that momentum into the second half, scoring 33 and 26 points in the third and fourth quarters respectively, as the game finished 97 – 57.

Amjyot Singh Gill led the Indian team with 26 points, 6 rebounds, and 4 assists. But as a unit, the team struggled to find its scoring touch, only managing a field goal percentage of 36 from 2-point range, although it shot a decent 31.5% from beyond the arc. To complicate matters, Indian shooting guard Vishesh Bhriguvanshi went down early in the second half, losing his footing while driving to the basket. He has been diagnosed with an ACL injury and is likely to miss the rest of the tournament.

Indian fans will be hoping that he recovers in time for the 2017 FIBA Asia Cup that will be played in Lebanon in August. On the defensive end, India was made to pay in the paint in the absence of star centre Amritpal Singh. Chinese centre Tao Hanlin came off the bench to lead his team with 18 points and 11 rebounds. The Chinese team was particularly dominant off the glass, pulling down a total of 45 rebounds that also included 14 offensive rebounds, whereas India only recorded 26 rebounds in total.

Next up, India will play 9th ranked Russia on Monday, June 19, before wrapping up the tournament against South Africa on Tuesday, June 20th.

China (Tao Han Lin 18 pts, 11 reb; Liu Xiao Yu 14 pts) bt India (Amjyot Singh Gill 26 pts, 2 blks, 2 stls; Rikin Pethani 12 pts) 97–57 (19-16, 19-12, 33-15, 26-14).

Opposition is considering a host of Dalit leaders, including Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's grandson Prakash and former Lok Sabha Speaker Meira Kumar, as Presidential candidate.

Kovind was denied entry to President's Shimla retreat

Call it destiny or sheer coincidence, BJP's Presidential nominee Ram Nath Kovind was denied entry to the President's Shimla summer holiday resort barely three weeks back. The Retreat is located amid Shimla's protected green belt. Kovind, who is the Bihar Governor, was in town as guest of Himachal Pradesh Governor Acharya Devvrat between May 28 to 30 along with his wife and children. He was staying at the Raj Bhavan. Sources said that on May 29, he went to see Siyog, Shimla's famous catchment area forest. While returning from the forest, Kovind chose to visit The Retreat, about 5 km away, along with his family but was denied entry by the staff posted there. Permission is granted only by the Rastrapathi Bhavan. As Kovind had not obtained permission from the Rastrapathi Bhavan, he was refused entrance.

"Farm loan waivers will lead to banks' bankruptcy"

RBI warns States : Don't encourage bad culture; RBI Governor writes to CMs of all States

Urjit Patel

Bengaluru, June 20 (KMS& NNN)- The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has warned that if Nationalised and Cooperative Banks waive of farmers' loans, the day is not far off when Banks will go bankrupt.

RBI Governor Urjit Patel has written letters to the Chief Ministers of all States in this regard, expressing his displeasure and said that banks continuing to encourage the bad culture of waiving of loans to the farmers should stop.

He cautioned about the moral consequences of loan waivers and said such "waivers engender moral hazard." The Governments take such populist measures and announce the waiver of farm loans. Because of this, the farmers who are in distress might be benefited. However, if the Governments do not repay the loans within the stipulated time then it would eventually affect national balance sheet, he has said.

Normally, the farmers borrow more from Cooperative Societies than from Nationalised Banks. The moment the loan waiver is announced, if the Government repays them to the banks then the banks suffering losses could be avoided. However, many a times, even after one year the money is not returned. This could lead to banks unable to offer loans to farmers again, Patel has highlighted in his letter.

In Karnataka, farmers have borrowed Rs. 10,000 crore from Co-operative Banks and Rs. 35,000 crore from Nationalised Banks. If the State Government waives off the loans and reimburses it to the Banks, then we will have no objection, he said.

However, there is not a single incidence of a State Government in the country returning the loan within six months. Hence, the District Co-operative Banks are not being able to advance loans to farmers. Every State Government should view this seriously, he has appealed to the Governments.

This has already been brought to the notice of Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Finance Minister Arun Jaitley. Due to farm loan waivers, the country's economic and GDP growth will suffer. Such waivers undermine an honest credit culture, which every Government should put an end to, he has cautioned, said sources.

Awareness campaign on payment of taxes

MCC collects Rs. 56 crore in two-and-a-half months

Mysuru, June 20 (PM&KS)- The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC), which has successfully created awareness on payment of taxes among the public, has collected Rs. 56 crore as taxes in just two-and-a-half months.

The MCC, which had collected Rs. 42 crore as taxes between Apr. 1 and June 15, 2016, have collected Rs. 56 crore during the same period in 2017, an increase of Rs. 14 crore, which is a result of extensive awareness programmes by the MCC.

A discount of 5% on property tax was announced this April resulting in the MCC collecting Rs. 36 crore in 21 days in its nine Zonal Offices, which had opened special counters for collection of taxes. The MCC has provided opportunity for house and property owners to pay their taxes without fine up to June 30.

Film on Sri Ramanujacharya at DRC - 4.30 pm

Sahasramanotsava celebration on silver screen

By Dr. Padmavathi Narasimhan

It is Ramanuja Sahasramanotsava, 1000th year of celebration of Sri Ramanujacharya's birth and many music and dance features are being organised by various Sabhas and prominent personalities.

In this series, a film on Ramanujacharya titled 'Bhagavad Sri Ramanuja' involving prominent personalities like Kasturirangan, former IGP, starring Om Sai Prakash (in pic) and Bharat Kalyan (son of veteran actor Kalyan Kumar) in the leading roles. It is a Kannada movie directed by Raja Ravi Shankar. It is a must-watch movie of 100 minutes duration. It is produced by Kasturirangan and the story, dialogues and scripture by Raja Ravi Shankar. Sri Ramanuja's unbelievable views and thoughts are beautifully depicted in the film.

It can be remembered that G.V. Iyer released the first movie on Ramanujacharya in 1985 in Sanskrit, which did not cover much of Karnataka. Raja Ravi Shankar has shot the film in Madhugiri, Kere Tonnur, Saligrama, Ramanathapura, in and around Chikkaballapur, Dhanushkoti, Srirangam and of course, Melukote, also called Tirunarayanapura.

Other shooting places — The Palace portion is shot at the Mahabharata Serial set at Kengeri, Bengaluru and G.V. Iyer studio. Raja Ravi Shankar has shot the movie in a record of 17 days. Ramanuja grew up in the Tamil culture, in a stable society during the rule of the Hindu Cholas dynasty. This period was one of pluralistic beliefs, where Vaishnava, Shaiva, Smarta traditions, Buddhism and Jainism thrived together. In Hindu monastic tradition, Advaita Vedanta had been dominant, and Ramanuja's guru Yadava Prakasha belonged to this tradition.

Prior to Ramanuja, Sri Vaishnava sampradaya was already an established organisation under Yamunacharya, and bhakti songs and devotional ideas already a part of south Indian culture because of the twelve Alvars. Ramanuja's fame grew because he was considered the first thinker in centuries that disputed Shankara's theories, and offered an alternate interpretation of Upanishadic scriptures.

Name: Bhagavad Sri Ramanuja
Direction: Raja Ravi Shankar.
Music: A.T. Ravish and P. Rama
Actors: Om Sai Prakash, Ram Prakash, Shashi Kote, Tirumalesha, Arati Kulkarni, Bharat Kalyan and dancer Radhika Iyengar
Produced by: Kasturirangan

Ramanuja's philosophical foundation was monism, also called Vishistadwaita. Ramanuja accepted that the Vedas are a reliable source of knowledge. He asserted, in his Sri Bhashya, that purvapaksin (previous schools) selectively interpret those Upanishadic passages that support their monistic interpretation, and ignore those passages that support the pluralism interpretation. There is no reason, stated Ramanuja, to prefer one part of a scripture and not other, the whole of the scripture must be considered on par.

One cannot, according to Ramanuja, attempt to give interpretations of isolated portions of any scripture. Rather, the scripture must be considered one integrated corpus, expressing a consistent doctrine. The Vedic literature, asserted Ramanuja, mention both plurality and oneness, therefore the truth must incorporate pluralism and monism, or qualified monism.

All the major incidents of Ramanuja's life are brought in the film right from Ramanuja's birth, leading onto Kolatunga's daughter's episode, Tirukacchinambi's episode where Ramanuja miraculously heals his daughter, Guru Yamanacharya and his death followed by the three folded fingers leading to Ramanuja's solving the riddle and agreeing to abide by his instructions, the episode of the dumb disciple, whom Ramanuja blesses by placing his sacred feet on his head, the episode of King Dhanurdasa and his wife Ponnachiyammal, the episode of Bibi Nachiyar, Ramanuja's taking to Sanyasa and finally Ramanuja's demise on the lap of his favourite disciple.

The movie is now running at DRC Cinemas in Habitat Mall, Jayalakshmipuram, at 4.30 pm.

WORD OF THE DAY

Astraphobia

Meaning: An abnormal fear of thunder and lightning.
Example: Thunderstorms are a classic feature of spring rolling into summer, making it an unsettling time of year for sufferers of astraphobia—a fear of thunder and lightning.
Origin: Astraphobia comes to English from the Greek astrap meaning "lightning," and phobos meaning "fear."

THE ODD WORD

Hapaxanthous

Flowering only once.

IDIOM OF THE DAY

Come what come may

Meaning: Let whatever events crop up come to pass.
Origin: From Shakespeare's Macbeth, 1605. Usually used just as 'come what may'.
A version of this was known in France as early as 1375, shown here from John Barbour's, The Bruce:
"Thai wuld defend, avalzequevalze."
"avalzequevalze" is "vaillequevaille" in modern French, meaning "let it avail what it may, come what may".
The Spanish "que sera sera" - "what will be, will be" is also old and predates Shakespeare's "come what come may".
The phrase, although it has those continental European counterparts, sounds archetypically English. It had reached the USA by 1878 though, when it appeared in the 4th Jan edition of The New York Times:
"...and should Parliament endorse that sentiment, come what come may, the might of England shall be put forth with a vigour and earnestness worthy of her old fame".
